The Neshama Box: Month of December Review

Rebbetzin Jennifer Caracelo of Keren Ohr Messianic Synagogue has a new ministry for women called Neshama. Neshama is a bridge for Messianic women to connect with each other and they will be having their first Women's conference in October 2018. So make sure that you also visit their website to get more info on the conference.

In addition to ministry, there is also a surprise box that goes out every month. The Neshama box is filled with goodies each month and the best thing about the box, in my opinion, is that it supports the crafts! Everything is handmade with love...just like grandma's cookies lol. Here is one of our ladies at Congregation Melech Yisrael with an unboxing video review of her Neshama box.

The idea of a Messianic surprise box is great! And I love to support my fellow sisters. Besides, the world needs more of us uniting as one body anyway. So go and grab one by clicking on the photo above! You will love it.

Disclaimer: This box was paid for by Nishmati and was not sponsored so we can give our honest thoughts. Enjoy! (p.s. this review is Jenn's first one... how delightfully frightened she was to do it. So for that, I want to personally thank her for being brave enough to go with the flow!) Great Product Review Jenn!
